

Paul Anthony Barker

Fine Art Portraits & Paintings

Bespoke portrait commissions beautifully crafted in the classical realistic style of oil portraiture. A portrait of a loved one is a wonderful gift with a timeless quality and longevity that other mediums cannot match. Paul sensitively captures the essence and character of the subject. His fine art skill extends into landscapes, still life and animal portraits.

'The finished piece was even better than I'd hoped: everyone who's seen it has been blown away and we're thrilled to think that such a lovely thing will hang on our wall for decades to come.' Paul Roundell - writer of Emmerdale

Paul works from his studios near London and in Carmarthenshire, West Wales. He is very happy to travel to meet clients at their convenience. International clients are welcome.
